

Copy Right Transfer Form

Intellectual Scientific Research Initiative (ISRI)

I hereby transfer the copyright of the paper entitled _____ by author/s _____.

I also hereby declare that (a) the article is solely owned by me and the co-authors (if any) included in the article title and does not contain any content from other copyright materials, (b) the article in electronic form as a whole or in part like line drawings, images, tables and other artworks illustrated can be used by ISRI to store in research databases. (c) the article has not been submitted / accepted / published in any other sources of publications either previously or at present, (d) the article does not contain any third party information and there is no need of any license from third party to publish the work, (e) any information discussed from other works are properly referenced in the article. (f) Though I retain the right to use the final published article for my further scientific career purposes like dissertations and thesis, I will definitely provide proper acknowledgement of this source publication by referring the DOI of the article. (g) In case if I need to republish my article in part or as a whole in other third party publications then I will definitely communicate with Editor-in-Chief of ISRI to obtain proper permission. (h) the final proof of the article is carefully proof read by me and the final proof of the article can be considered for publication in ISRI.

Journal Name: _____

Paper Title: _____

Author's name: _____

Author's Signature: _____

Date: _____